RE: FORMAL CEASE AND DESIST — ALL COMMUNICATION TO STOP IMMEDIATELY

I, Margaret L. Collins, hereby formally demand that Horizon Financial Services LLC, its employees, agents, contractors, and any third parties acting on its behalf, IMMEDIATELY CEASE AND DESIST all direct and indirect communication with me.

This demand covers all forms of communication including but not limited to: telephone calls (including automated dialers and pre-recorded messages), text messages, emails, postal mail, door-to-door visits, and any communication through third-party debt collectors.

I am invoking my rights under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), 15 U.S.C. Section 1692c(c), which requires that upon receipt of this written notice, all collection communications must stop. Any further contact after receipt of this letter will be considered a wilful violation of federal law and will result in legal action.

This letter serves as your official written notice. You are required to acknowledge receipt of this cease and desist demand within 10 business days. Failure to comply will result in a formal complaint filed with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) and legal action seeking damages as permitted under the FDCPA.

Sincerely,

Margaret L. Collins
